Welcome

The annual meeting of the NDACC-IRWG / TCCON / COCCON will be hosted by the Royal Belgian Institute for Space Aeronomy \(BIRA-IASB\) supported by the Belgian Science Policy Office \(BELSPO\).

This event will take place from 12 to 16 June 2023 at the Radisson Blu Balmoral Hotel, Spa, Belgium. The address is Avenue Léopold II, 40, 4900 Spa, Belgium.

The meeting brings together the ground-based Fourier transform infrared spectroscopy experts from around the world who are associated with the Infrared Working Group of the Network for the Detection of Atmospheric Composition Change \(NDACC-IRWG\), the Total Carbon Column Observing Network \(TCCON\) and the Collaborative Carbon Column Observing Network \(COCCON\) and the users of the data. As an exhibitor at this meeting, you can present your services and products to a knowledgeable and motivated international audience who are experts in atmospheric measurement techniques in specific on the Fourier transform spectrometers and the users of data. We expect around 80 – 100 attendees from around the world to join the meeting.

If you are interested in exhibiting at the meeting, please consult the following information package or feel free to contact us at the contact details provided on the meeting website under Organizing Committee section. We look forward to work with you to find a suitable level of involvement and sponsorship that fits the needs of your company.

Sincerely,

Prof. Dr. Martine De Mazière (on behalf of the meeting organizing committee)
Royal Belgian Institute for Space Aeronomy (BIRA-IASB)
Ringlaan 3, 1180 Brussels, Belgium

General Information

Location

The Royal Belgian Institute for Space Aeronomy has the privilege to host this year's NDACC-IRWG-TCCON-COCCON annual meeting. The meeting will take place in a city called Spa which is located in the Ardennes region of eastern Belgium. Spa is known for its thermal waters with supposed curative properties. It has been newly awarded as UNESCO World Heritage Site. The city is nestled in nature and is considered as a perfect destination for travelers in need of a peaceful rest.

The meeting will take place at the Radisson Blu Balmoral Hotel in Spa (Address: Avenue Léopold II, 40, 4900 Spa). You can visit the hotel website for more details and pictures visit: <https://www.radissonhotels.com/en-us/hotels/radisson-blu-spa-balmoral>.
